7. “Sonnets of the Subconscious: Merve Iseri and Krista Louise Smith” at Carvalho Park

Opening this Friday at Carvalho Park is a two-person show featuring paintings and sculptures by Krista Louise Smith and Merve Iseri. “Sonnets of the Subconscious” is a “monument to nightmares, the irrational anxieties that abruptly disrupt the dreamscape.” Krista Louise Smith’s work Bad Dreams depicts one of the worst nightmares of all time—that of one’s teeth falling out. Making it even more terrifying, the pieces will be laid out across the gallery’s main space to a length of 24 feet.

Location: 112 Waterbury Street, Brooklyn

Price: Free

Time: Opening reception, 7 p.m.–9 p.m.; by appointment
